

Perspektive – Fund for Contemporary Art and Architecture - Open call for projects 2017 from October 1st

Perspektive – Fund for Contemporary Art and Architecture, initiated by the Bureau for Visual Arts of the Institut français Germany, aims to support projects happening between France and Germany. It is funded by the French Ministries of Foreign Affairs and Culture, the Institut français and the Goethe-Institute and it is supported by the Deutsche Bank to reinforce the cultural cooperation between the two countries.

The call for projects runs from October 1st until December 1st, 2016.

In February 2017 the artistic expert committee will announce the projects that shall receive funding for implementation in the same year.

Under the guidance of Adeline Blanchard (Head of the Bureau for Visual Arts), the independent German-French expert committee includes:

Eike Becker, Architect, Berlin

Jacques Ferrier, Architect and urbanist, Paris

Arthur de Ganay, Collector, Collection Arthur de Ganay, Berlin

Hélène Guenin, Director, Musée d'Art moderne et d'Art contemporain (MAMAC), Nice

Jean-Hubert Martin, Curator, former Director of the Musée national d'art moderne Centre Pompidou, Paris

Lisa Marei Schmidt, Curator, National Gallery in the Hamburger Bahnhof, Berlin

Perspektive supports projects that focus on exchange and collaboration with artists, architects and intermediaries between Germany and France.
